

2. Those in charge of rice are to inform the guests that they are not to throw rice inside the church buildings. The bride is responsible for conveying this information to the proper persons.
3. Priority shall be given to church members in the reservation of church facilities for weddings.
4. When a minister other than the Pastor is used for the wedding service, prior approval must be given by Pastor and/or the Deacons.
5. Reservations for the building will be considered firm when the Wedding Reservation Form (Appendix A-13) has been completed and returned to the Pastor.